Who's Afraid of the Big, Black, Night? - Who's Afraid of the Big, Black, Night? 1 minute, 58 seconds - Best Selling author Carew Papritz reading from his award-winning book The Legacy Letters SUBSCRIBE! Carew's YouTube ...

I used to be afraid of the dark when I was your age.

I remember staring out from our house porch, and all I could see was acres of darkness and monsters.

Where--out in that squid-inky black ocean of night, the goblin trees were planning how to snatch me up and eat me...

and the mad killer Indians were quietly shuffling among the rocks ready to ambush, scalp, shoot, knife, and then leave me as a coyote side dish.

You can either be afraid of the dark or be friends with it--your choice.

So we poked around the goblin trees and the Indian ambush rocks and were not eaten.

And we sat in the dark, and walked in the dark, and even laughed in the dark--and were not eaten.
