So what's the difference between hunger and cravings?

Many of our poor food choices are not our fault.

So how do we fix our eating habits if we're not always in control?

Food and exercise are more effective than drugs for anxiety and depression?!

So what are some of the foods that will boost natural hormones?

Drinking enough water during the day makes you eat less.

Here's what food companies know about dopamine.

Do this when you want to stop overeating.

Why does dopamine work better when you reward yourself at random times?

Here's how your gut and your brain talk to each other and what that means.

What exactly is the relationship between food and bacteria?

The #1 probiotic that you should be adding to your days.

How the hell do you get rid of your sugar cravings?

Do you get enough sleep? Here's why that matters.

Why you should wait 45 minutes before you drink your coffee.

This is what Dr. Amy thinks about intermittent fasting and how she does it.
