Volume per insegnare a bambini e ragazzi a gestire le proprie emozioni attraverso tecniche di ristrutturazione cognitiva. L'ABC delle mie emozioni si ispira alla Terapia Razionale Emotiva Comportamentale (REBT), oltre a tracciarne gli ultimi aggiornamenti ne presenta le particolarità e individua le differenze rispetto ad altre metodologie. La Terapia Razionale Emotiva Comportamentale (REBT) Si tratta di una teoria e di una prassi psicoterapeutica ideata dallo psicologo statunitense Albert Ellis, l'accostamento dei termini «razionale» ed «emotiva» sta a indicare la possibilità di raggiungere un certo benessere emotivo utilizzando la propria capacità di pensare in modo razionale e costruttivo. La Terapia Razionale Emotiva Comportamentale spiega il meccanismo che sta alla base delle reazioni emotive attraverso il modello ABC dell'emozione: il punto A indica un qualsiasi evento o situazione; il punto B comprende i pensieri valutativi riguardanti ciò che accade al punto A; il punto C è la reazione emotiva e il comportamento che ne deriva. Secondo questo modello non è A (l'evento) a causare direttamente C (l'emozione), ma piuttosto è l'elemento B (i pensieri) che determina il tipo di reazione emotiva e comportamentale. L'educazione razionale-emotiva L'educazione razionale-emotiva è un percorso didattico derivato dalla Terapia Razionale Emotiva Comportamentale, attraverso il quale si cerca di educare la mente del bambino al potenziamento di quell'aspetto dell'intelligenza che è in grado di favorire reazioni emotive equilibrate e funzionali. Il processo di educazione emotiva, inteso come strategia di prevenzione del disagio emotivo, costituisce, secondo un'espressione coniata da alcuni psicologi statunitensi, un vero e proprio lavoro di «alfabetizzazione emotionale». Ciò significa infatti insegnare al bambino l'ABC delle proprie emozioni secondo il modello della Terapia Razionale Emotiva Comportamentale. Consigliato a Il testo può essere utilizzato come materiale di lavoro con il bambino o il ragazzo e si presta ad essere utilizzato anche in un contesto di coaching o di psicoterapia, fornendo un prezioso strumento al counselor o al terapeuta. In sintesi L'educazione razionale-emotiva non vuole essere una mera celebrazione delle emozioni, ma vuole soprattutto insegnare come superare emozioni nocive e vivere il più possibile emozioni positive. Capire le emozioni significa essere consapevoli del rapporto tra mente ed emozioni, in altre parole conoscere ciò che, dentro la nostra testa, determina l'insorgenza e il mantenimento di una certa emozione. La luna di Palermo mette a nudo la notte per farci fantasticare sulla magia della città, sulla grandezza del suo cielo terso e sulla misteriosa bellezza dei vicoli e dei palazzi che affollano e arricchiscono il nostro Capoluogo di Regione. Alla nostra luna viene chiesto di brillare un po' di più quando nei cuori degli innamorati si spegne qualche lampione e serve più luce per guardare negli occhi la commozione e la felicità. A volte, la nostra luna, attraversa il cielo per far compagnia ai suonatori e ai cantori notturni in vena di portare serenate alle ragazze innamorate. Altre volte rimane sospesa all'orizzonte per incantare i poeti e i sognatori. Spesso recita nel grande palcoscenico del cielo insieme alle stelle. In quelle notti incantate offre alla terra uno spettacolo degno di una grande artista. Desidera offrire a questo mondo la sua smagliante bellezza. Anche quando indugia sul promontorio di Monte Pellegrino per ammirare il golfo della nostra splendida città, fa segno alle stelle di continuare a brillare per non lasciare al buio il cielo e il mare della sua carissima Palermo.

"Super B salva il Natale" è il titolo del concorso a premi che TLC Telecomunicazioni ha promosso al solo scopo di alleviare le giornate di tutti i bambini costretti a casa al fine di debellare l'epidemia di Covid -19 in essere nel nostro paese. Ma chi è Super B? Super B (che sta per super Bambino/a) è il supereroe che, con la sua fantasia, distruggerà l'odiato mostro Coronavirus. TLC Telecomunicazioni è una compagnia telefonica che nasce nel 2004 dall'iniziativa di un giovane imprenditore all'epoca 25enne con l'intento di cogliere le opportunità che il mercato delle telecomunicazioni, da poco liberalizzato, stava presentando. Nel tempo, TLC è diventata un punto di riferimento per molte realtà soprattutto aziendali ma anche domestiche e svolge la sua attività in tutto il territorio nazionale con l'obiettivo di offrire ai propri clienti un servizio tecnologicamente all'avanguardia, con standard qualitativi eccellenti, conseguendo una riduzione dei costi. Giuseppe Del Prete, classe 1979, ha fondato TLC Telecomunicazioni quando aveva solo 25 anni. Attualmente è amministratore delegato.

In today's hyper-connected society, understanding the mechanisms of trust is crucial. Issues of trust are critical to solving problems as diverse as corporate responsibility, global warming, and the political system. In this insightful and entertaining book, Schneier weaves together ideas from across the social and biological sciences to explain how society induces trust. He shows the unique role of trust in facilitating and stabilizing human society. He discusses why and how trust has evolved, why it works the way it does, and the ways the information society is changing everything.

Sticks and stones may break bones, but words can inspire an angry mob to pick up those clubs in the first place. This collection of fifty speeches reveals how men and women throughout the ages changed the course of history. Featuring classical orators, wartime heroes, and contemporary icons, from Elizabeth I to Abraham Lincoln, from Margaret Thatcher to Nelson Mandela, right up through Barack Obama, I Dare Say: Great Speeches that Changed the World tells the great stories of human history, including: · The Ancient World:

Public speaking became an art in ancient Greece and Rome, and the records of speeches written by philosophers and teachers such as Homer and Cicero form the bedrock for modern philosophical thought and epic literary works. · European History: The bloody Crusades, fractious divisions among the European powers, and a political philosophy of terror redraw the maps of Europe. · Early American History: The dynamic speeches that rallied thousands to join arms against their motherland—and their brothers—from the American Revolution to the Civil War. · Slavery, Suffrage, and Civil Rights: Impassioned and eloquent speeches from luminaries such as Sojourner Truth, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Hillary Rodham Clinton document the struggle for equal rights that shapes the modern world. · World Wars I and II: The rallying cries to protect, defend, and conquer that defined the twenty-first century—from both the winners and losers of the great World Wars. · Colonialism and Apartheid: The calls for peace and equality from leaders such as Mandela and Jawaharlal Nehru as the global maps were redrawn once again. · Global Terrorism: The speeches from Osama bin Laden, George W. Bush, and others that created a new “war on terror” and reshaped American government. · Contemporary American Politics: A look at the speeches that touched the nation, that put a man to the moon, and that helped Barack Obama, the first African-American U.S. president, rise to office.

This bestselling, seminal book - a general survey of Europe in the era of 'Renaissance and Reformation' - was originally published in Denys Hay's famous Series, 'A General History of Europe'. It looks at sixteenth-century Europe as a complex but interconnected whole, rather than as a mosaic of separate states. The authors explore its different aspects through the various political structures of the age - empires, monarchies, city-republics - and how they functioned and related to one another. A strength of the book remains the space it devotes to the growing importance of town-life in the sixteenth century, and to the economic background of political change.

L'ABC delle mie emozioni - 8-13 anni

A unique, stunningly illustrated look at the origins, development, and future prospects of cities More than half the world's population lives in cities, and that proportion is expected to rise to three-quarters by 2050. Urbanization is a global phenomenon, but the way cities are developing, the experience of city life, and the prospects for the future of cities vary widely from region to region. The Atlas of Cities presents a unique taxonomy of cities that looks at different aspects of their physical, economic, social, and political structures; their interactions with each other and with their hinterlands; the challenges and opportunities they present; and where cities might be going in the future. Each chapter explores a particular type of city—from the foundational cities of Greece and Rome and the networked cities of the Hanseatic League, through the nineteenth-century modernization of Paris and the industrialization of Manchester, to the green and \"smart\" cities of today. Expert contributors explore how the development of these cities reflects one or more of the common themes of urban development: the mobilizing function (transport, communication, and infrastructure); the generative function (innovation and technology); the decision-making capacity (governance, economics, and institutions); and the transformative capacity (society, lifestyle, and culture). Using stunning info-graphics, maps, charts, tables, and photographs, the Atlas of Cities is a comprehensive overview of the patterns of production, consumption, generation, and decay of the twenty-first century's defining form. Presents a one-of-a-kind taxonomy of cities that looks at their origins, development, and future prospects Features core case studies of particular types of cities, from the foundational cities of Greece and Rome to the \"smart\" cities of today Explores common themes of urban development, from transport and communication to lifestyle and culture Includes stunning info-graphics, maps, charts, tables, and photos Cities Featured: Abuja, Alexandria, Amsterdam, Athens, Augsburg, Babylon, Beijing, Berlin, Brasilia, Bruges, Budapest, Cairo, Canberra, Chandigarh, Chicago, Constantinople, Curitiba, Detroit, Dubai, Dublin, Düsseldorf, Florence, Frankfurt, Freiburg, Geneva, Ghent, Glasgow, Güsing, Hong Kong, Innsbruck, Istanbul, Jakarta, Karachi, Knossos, Las Vegas, London, Los Angeles, Lübeck, Manchester, Marseille, Masdar City, Mexico City, Miami, Milan, Mumba, Mumbai, Nairobi, New York, Paris, Pella, Portland,

Jeffery Deaver, \"the master of manipulation\" (Associated Press) and \"the most creative, skilled and intriguing thriller writer in the world.\" (Daily Telegraph, UK) returns with the new, long-awaited, Kathryn Dance thriller. A tragedy occurs at a small concert venue on the Monterey Peninsula. Cries of \"fire\" are raised and, panicked, people run for the doors, only to find them blocked. A half dozen people die and others are seriously injured. But it's the panic and the stampede that killed them; there was no fire. Kathryn Dance--a brilliant California Bureau of Investigation agent and body language expert--discovers that the stampede was caused intentionally and that the perpetrator, a man obsessed with turning people's own fears and greed into weapons, has more attacks planned. She and her team must race against the clock to find where he will strike next before more innocents die.

Influenced by a revival of interest in Greco-Roman ideals and sponsored by a newly prosperous merchant class, fifteenth-century artists produced works of astonishingly innovative content and technique. The International Gothic style of painting, still popular at the beginning of the century, was giving way to the influence of Early Netherlandish Flemish masters such as Jan van Eyck, who emphasized narrative and the complex use of light for symbolic meaning. Patrons favored paintings in oil and on wooden panels for works ranging from large, hinged altarpieces to small, increasingly lifelike portraits. In the Italian city-states of Florence, Venice, and Mantua, artists and architects alike perfected existing techniques and developed new ones. The painter Masaccio mastered linear perspective; the sculptor Donatello produced anatomically correct but idealized figures such as his bronze nude of David; and the brilliant architect and engineer Brunelleschi integrated Gothic and Renaissance elements to build the self-supporting dome of the Florence Cathedral. This beautifully illustrated guide analyzes the most important people, places, and concepts of this early Renaissance period, whose explosion of creativity was to spread throughout Europe in the sixteenth century.

La luna di Palermo

On the night of March 26, 1938, nuclear physicist Ettore Majorana boarded a ship, cash and passport in hand. He was never seen again. In A Brilliant Darkness, theoretical physicist Joo Magueijo tells the story of Majorana and his research group, "the Via Panisperna Boys," who discovered atomic fission in 1934. As Majorana, the most brilliant of the group, began to realize the implications of what they had found, he became increasingly unstable. Did he commit suicide that night in Palermo? Was he kidnapped? Did he stage his own death? A Brilliant Darkness chronicles Majorana's invaluable contributions to science - including his major discovery, the Majorana neutrino - while revealing the truth behind his fascinating and tragic life.

From antiquity until the nineteenth century, there have been two types of state: macro-states, each dotted with a number of cities, and regions broken up into city-states, each consisting of an urban centre and its hinterland. A region settled with interacting city-states constituted a city-state culture and Polis opens with a description of the concepts of city, state, city-state, and city-state culture, and a survey of the 37 city-state cultures so far identified. Mogens Herman Hansen provides a thoroughly accessible introduction to the polis (plural: poleis), or ancient Greek city-state, which represents by far the largest of all city-state cultures. He addresses such topics as the emergence of the polis, its size and population, and its political organization, ranging from famous poleis such as Athens and Sparta through more than 1,000 known examples.

Ancient wisdom tells us that gardens have a healing, nourishing effect on the human soul and body. The garden belongs to the great archetype of life and is one of the few big archetypal images that are experienced primarily as positive. This positive experience is significant because the garden is a part of the natural and cultural human environment, and thus, is particularly influential in the interaction between human beings and their environment.
